

Workshop Music Concert Series 2021/2022

WORKSHOP COLLEGE

Welcome to the 2021/22 Worksop Music Concert Series.

Run by the College for music-lovers across the region, Worksop Music is a non-profit venture which aims to provide significant cultural enrichment at an accessible cost.

Attracting artists from across the UK and beyond, this series also features home-grown talent from across the school's pupils and staff. This year's programme continues the strong spirit of education imbued with quality and diversity and there are also a couple of events which mark the College's 125th Anniversary. The anniversary events, which would have been held last year had it not been for the Coronavirus Pandemic, aim to bring to life some of founding principals of the College as well as recreating music which was composed at this time.

There will be much to marvel at, from the infectious energy and creative reimaginings of jazz trio, Parodolia, to the world renowned performances of VOCES8 who will sprinkle their stardust over us in January.

I hope that the reawakening of live music-making will bring us all great joy this year and look forward to welcoming you to as many concerts as possible.

Timothy Uglow,
Director of Music, Worksop College
