

Prizegiving – how to nominate pupils

Heads of Department are asked to discuss nominations with their departments and then complete the online nomination form, found HERE, by the deadline.

Please see below for a how-to guide

Merits

Merit prizes focus on hard work and achievement at the pupil's own level. Please choose up to five pupils.

Subject Prizes

Please choose your top three students in order of 1st, 2nd and 3rd. Subject prizes focus on ability as well as consistent effort.

Special Prizes

Please read the explanations of each prize carefully. As a general rule most nominations are made for members of the U6 – please see below for exceptions.

Adrian Lindsay Conduct Cup

For a member of Year 9 or Year 10 in memory of former Bursar, Adrian Lindsay. The cup is awarded for conduct, outstanding courtesy, excellent behaviour and exemplary manners.

Caufield Drama Service Cup

Awarded for services to school productions and outstanding performances

The Griffiths Graduate

For sustained representative performance in sport over a number of years, having an impact on the College community and the wider national sporting community.

The J Douglas Hudson Trophy

Donated by a former Prize Giving Day guest, Flt. Lt. J. Douglas Hudson, DFC, AE, RAFVR, this prize recognises extra-curricular contribution of an academic nature.

George Wilson Painting Prize

Awarded to a student with an exceptional ability, developing their creative practice

The Henn Prize

Awarded to a member of the Upper Sixth who has demonstrated progress across a number of academic and non-academic spheres.

Hurton Chapel Choir Prize

Awarded to the Head Chorister of the Chapel Choir.

Mountgarret Performance Prize

Awarded to the Leader of the College Orchestra.

Old Worksopian Progress Prize

This prize recognises progress beyond the academic sphere – looking at extra-curricular activity, development of character, personality or leadership skills.

Reynolds Junior Chorister Cup

Awarded to the most promising junior chorister (Y10 or below).

Rowcliffe Musicianship Prize

Awarded to a pupil who during the course of the year has displayed, usually through performance, an exceptionally high level of musicianship.

Sir John Betjeman Verse Prize

Awarded for outstanding achievement in the area of creative writing

The Stuart Heggie Memorial Cup

For a member of the school below the Sixth Form who has contributed positively to the community across a number of different achievements.

Talbot Science Prize

For a member of the Upper Sixth who has demonstrated outstanding scientific thinking, skills and understanding and has applied this well beyond expectations.

Woodard Board Prize

Awarded to a member of the Upper Sixth who has supported the work of the Chapel reliably and faithfully throughout their time at the College.

The Ainsley Masonic Prize

Awarded to those who have made an outstanding contribution to the community and life of the school.

Colonel Flint Prize

Awarded to a pupil who, in the eyes of the community, has overcome adversity to achieve a great deal.
